Venice, November 4.

BY ſeveral Veſſels arrived from the Levant we have an account, that the Turks make great preparations for the proſecuting the War the next Year; That at Conſtantinople they have hung out the Great Standard of Mahomet, and the Three Horſes Tails, which is never done but when the whole Force of the Empire is to be drawn together; and that the Grand Signior had declared he would go into the Field in Perſon the next Campagne; We are farther told that the Capitan Bacha was arrived with the Turkiſh Gallies at Smirna, and that a great many Troops were embarked there to be tranſported to Salonichi; but that Signior Molino who Cruiſes with the Men of War of the Republick in the Archipelago has a very watchful Eye upon them. Our Letters from Dalmatia inform us, that the Proveditor-General Valier, had appointed his Troops to Rendezvous at Cataro; that a great Body of Morlaques was likewiſe marching thither; and that the deſign was to beſiege Caſtel-Nouvo; to facilitate which Enterprize Captain-General Moroſini would ſend ſix Gallies, two Galeaſſes, and four Men of War, to ſhut up the place by Sea.

Leopol, October 26. In our laſt we told you that the King of Poland was encamped in the Neighborhood of Caminiec; ſince we have an account that his Majeſty had cauſed ſome Bombs to be thrown into the place from a Hill that ſtands near it; That there had been ſeveral Skirmiſhes between the Poles and the Turks, who ſallied out of the Town; That the King receiving advice that the Turks and Tartars, who believed he was engaged in the Siege of Caminiec, were on their march, his Majeſty, having firſt given Orders for the deſtroying all the Forage in the neighboring Villages, decamped and marched to Kolenzan, and being there informed that the Tartars had paſſed the Nieſter, he advanced to meet them, but it appeared they were only a Detachement ſent out to obſerve the Poliſh Army, upon which the King commanded his Van-guard to charge them, which they did with ſo much fury that the Tartars immediately fled; we are aſſured that above 3000 of them were ſlain upon the place or in the purſuit, that ſeveral Murſas, which are their Principal Officers, were taken Priſoners, and that the Son of the Kam, who commanded this Detachement, eſcaped very narrowly, his Horſe being killed under him; The Poles loſt not above 100 Men in this Action, among which were the Sieur Wizicki Captain of the Palatin of Ruſſia's Guards, and the Sieur Gurski, and ſome other Gentlemen. That after this the King had given orders for the laying a Bridge over the Nieſter between Grodko and Caſprovitz, and that it was ſaid his Majeſty intended, notwithſtanding the Seaſon, to paſs that River and to enter into Moldavia. We have advice that ſeveral thouſand Colmuque Tartars, who have always followed the Intereſts of this Crown, are arrived at Nimierow, and that a conſiderable Body of the Zaporovien Coſſacks are on their march to make an Invaſion into the Territories of the Crim Tartars, who will be thereby obliged to return home to ſecure their own Country.

Vienna, November 12. The Elector of Bavaria and the Duke of Lorrain are expected here in few days; The Imperialiſts have demoliſhed Peſt and Vaccia; and it's believed they will do the like with Vicegrad, and ſome other ſmall places, which lie near the Enemies great Gariſons; The Bavarian Troops and thoſe of Suabia are marching to take their Winter-quarters in Upper Hungary, and the Imperialiſts will have theirs in the Berg Towns, Sileſia, and Moravia, their head Quarter being appointed at Newſol. General Schultz continues with the Troops under his command in the Neighborhood of Stropko, expecting a reinforcement of Foot, after whoſe arrival it's ſaid he will endeavor to reduce the City of Eſperies before he goes into his Winter-quarters. Several Councils of War have been held here within theſe few days concerning the preparations for the next Campagne. The Emperor is ſending Miniſters to ſeveral Princes of the Empire to deſire their aſſiſtance, and has named the Count de Thaun, Lieutenant-General, to go to the Elector of Cologne, who it's ſaid has offered to aſſiſt his Imperial Majeſty with 12000 Men. The Officers of the new Levy of 12000 Men which the Emperor's Hereditary Countries are to raiſe and maintain during the War, have received poſitive Orders to have the ſaid Troops compleat by the Firſt of March. The Count de Staremberg, our Governor, is come hither from Presbourg, but continues very ill.

Ratisbonne, November 13. The three Colledges of the Dyet have at laſt agreed upon a concluſion concerning the Commiſſioners for executing the Treaty of Truce lately concluded between the Empire and the Crown of France; The ſubſtance whereof is, That the Emperor be moſt humbly prayed to admit of four Deputies from the Circles of the Empire, which are ſituated neareſt to France, to be joyned to his Commiſſioners for the hearing and examining the Complaints of thoſe that are aggrieved contrary to the ſaid Truce and the Treaties of Weſtphalia and Nimeguen. And that the Emperor be farther deſired that the ſaid Commiſſioners may from time to time give an account of what they do to the Imperial Commiſſioners here, that the Dyet may have ſpeedy notice thereof.

Ratisbonne, November 16. Our Letters from Hungary give an account, that the Regiments of Wirtemberg and Nigrelli had joyned the Imperial Army, which was marching to their Winter-quarters. That they had quitted Peſt and Waccia; but that they had a deſign upon Novigrad for the ſecuring their Winter-quarters. Newheuſel will it's ſaid be very cloſely blocked up this Winter.

Hamburgh, November 17. Our Letters from Stockholme inform us, that the Heer Van Haren Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, had taken his leave of the King of Sweden in order to his return home. They write from Lemberg of the 22. paſt, that the Kam of Tartary advancing with part of his troops towards the Poliſh Army, the King ſent out a ſtrong Detachement, who met the Tartars between Choraskow and Kapzin, and entirely defeated them, above 2000 of them being killed and a great many taken priſoners; and that the Kam having ſome
